HIGH PRIORITY/VISIBILITY REQUEST

P&PG/OL received an unusual high-priority job request from the [redacted] for pickup by one Mr. Santa Claus. The job entailed printing an aerial map [redacted]. P&PG had some difficulty with Mr. Claus' request for CIA to separately mark the [redacted] houses containing both naughty and nice children. After consultations with CPAS, this information was obtained and included on the map. Mr. Claus, [redacted] reported to have been very pleased with the product, and as the result, there were unconfirmed reports that the North Pole would underwrite an eight percent pay raise for Washington's federal employees. [redacted] (Rudolph/P&PG [redacted])
